Angela Inglis | Echo

Angela Inglis' voice is liquid warmth; it pours words and sounds directly into the heart. Philosophical and lyrical, her song-stories transport us to places inside ourselves. Originally from Winnipeg, the transplanted Prairie girl now resides near mountains and ocean in Victoria, BC, Canada.

Awarded a FACTOR Demo Grant on her first application (March 2014) and short-listed in the CBC Searchlight Competition 2015 upon first entry, this self-taught singer-songwriter shows us what passion, commitment and community can accomplish.

Folk mingles with chamber music, Americana and hints of jazz on Angela's album, Echo. This ten-track LP features the multi-talented John Raham (Frazey Ford) as co-producer and drummer, along with a roster of gifted musicians from Juno award-winning bands Dan Mangan, The Be Good Tanyas and Pugs and Crows. Each player's distinctive sound is woven artfully and sensitively through the compositions, making every track a unique experience. Presented in the order in which they were written, Echo tells a story deeply familiar to the human heart.

On a shoestring budget, with the talent and dedication of a small cast and crew, Angela produced and directed a music video for the first single, Moving Target. Echo has appeared in the top 30 charts of college and community radio stations including CiTR 101.9 (Vancouver), CJSR 88.5FM (Edmonton) and CJSF 90.1FM (Burnaby).

Angela has done solo tours in Canada, as well as touring Europe several times, including the Kling Music and Art Festival in Germany, along with a show at the iconic Troubadour in London.

Awakening both heart and mind, Angela's music leaves you feeling less alone and more alive.
